CLASS OF '82

A Small Group With a Big Impact

Senior Class was not only a small group, but it was also an all-girl council, yet they didn't let either of these facts hold them back from going all out and making 1981-1982 one of the most productive and fun years ever. Weekly meetings led to a variety of projects. Homecoming was a great success. The Senior Class Council's cola booth raised a small fortune to help fund the Second Annual Christmas Dance. After the holidays were over, the girls concentrated on raising money in a variety of innovative and spirited ways ranging from rummage sales to T-shirts with the names of all of the graduating seniors on them.

This enthusiastic group was led by president Leslie Deukmejian, vice-president Elizabeth Barkis, and secretary Mary Lockington, each of whom gave one hundred percent of themselves to help the council run as smoothly as possible.

- 1 Something besides the council agenda is on Liz Fort's mind
- 2 The council moves their meeting outside after being kicked out of the activities office
- 3 They may have been confused at times, but these council members always had a smile
- 4 President Leslie Deukmejian, secretary Mary Lockington, and vice-president Liz Barkis relax in the quad

WINNERS

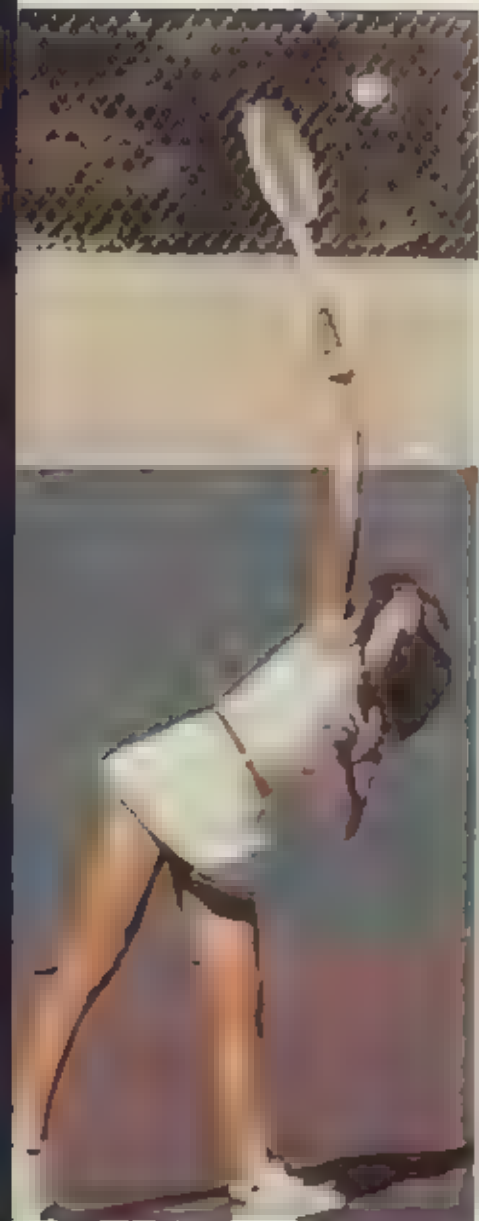

Too Hot To Handle

Victory cries could be heard erupting from the tennis courts as the Girls Varsity Tennis Team won another match. After defeating Poly and Lakewood, their stiffest competition, our Wilson girls went on to take the Moore League Championship. The team lived up to the high hopes of Coach Betz who expected Wilson to do well. Losing only two members of last year's Varsity Moore League Championship team, returning lettermen Denise Benson, Charmaine Cosky, Jasmine Kim, Marci Klein, Betsy Smith, and Holly Wade continued the winning tradition. Four very talented and inspired members of the Varsity team were sophomores Amanda Brodie, Tina Goldberg, Monique Schoustra and Molly Quest. These girls will form a strong foundation for the tennis team in the following two years.

Singles player, Molly Quest, went undefeated all season in the Moore League. Having a perfect record gave her the right to play in the CIF play-offs. A special congratulations was given to Denise Benson, who maintained a perfect record as a sophomore and a junior playing Varsity doubles. This year, as a senior, she skillfully switched to singles when the team was in need of a singles player. All the versatile members gave commendable performances in creating a championship team.

The Girls JV Tennis Team came through with a winning season also. They went undefeated and took the JV Moore League Championship title. Under the leadership of Coach Hoffman, the girls portrayed top-notch skill and determination in their matches. They perfected their game in hopes of gaining a spot on the Varsity team next year. Coach Hoffman forewarned her team saying, "There are so many super players that it will be tough to make Varsity next year."

Wilson Offense Gets Bruin'

It was a slow start for the 1981 Wilson Varsity football team. The varsity opened up the preseason with a 7-0 win against Rolling Hills. But the following week was disappointing with a 28-0 loss to a tough Villa Park team. Against Pius X, Wilson saw defeat again with a 14-0 score and then a 28-7 victory to Westminster.

In league play, Wilson celebrated its homecoming with a 31-29 win to Jordan. Quarterback Todd Gates passed for 122 yards and wide receiver Luther Evans was magnificent with seven receptions for 120 yards and a 23 yard touchdown run.

The Poly-Wilson rivalry came short for the Bruins, but the Wilson Varsity surprised the Moore League with a 3-0 win over Compton. Brett Bebee's interception set up a 25 yard field goal and with 18 seconds remaining, Jason Bebee kicked successfully. Throughout the rest of the season Wilson played exceptionally well.

Injuries to offensive lineman Brad Hauser and junior runningback/rover Brett Bebee had the offense suffering. Tom Langley's injury hurt the defense, as did a dislocated finger which left lineman Tory Pankopf out of action. Most missed of all was senior quarterback Todd Gates. Gates, the most widely recruited player at Wilson since Bobby Grich, broke his collarbone before play got started. Each player, including Gates, came back toward the end of the season to carry on the Wilson spirit.

Distance Running Was Their Game

It's not just the fancy running shoes that make Wilson's Girls Cross Country Team number one, it's the girls who put those shoes to use. Puma, Nike, Brooks, New Balance, and Adidas were the shoes they wore while running their way to many victories. Any team wanting to stay close to the almighty Bruins needed to overcome Wilson's desire, determination, and dedication.

Through weeks of diligent practice, sheer hard work, and the firm but understanding coaching of Mrs. Theresa Jordan, the team once again dominated Moore League.

With five of last year's top seven runners returning, the team had no problem with lack of experience. All city selections, Tracey Sommerville, Alexia Soutos, and Leslie Fernald led the pack along with other returnees, Laura Elm, and Gina Simone. The red and gold girls of cross country displayed an outrageous amount of talent and skill. Dons Painter, Rebecca Taylor, and Margaret Inui were also among the top runners of the team.

Just as runners can be recognized by their running shoes, Wilson's Girls Cross Country Team can be recognized by its winning record.

Bruins "Net" Fourth Straight Victory

The Varsity Water Polo team did an outstanding job this year winning their fourth consecutive Moore League water polo crown and being ranked among the top 10 in CIF.

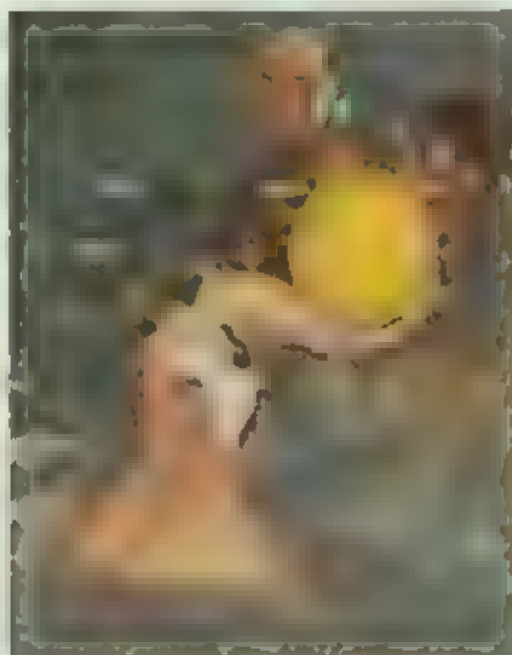

The Bruins successfully defeated No. 1 Sunny Hills 11-7 with goals from Doug Bolicek and Steve Jones in the first 1:48, and also 10-8 OT against a tough Newport Harbour.

One of the most appreciated players was Doug Bolicek who recently returned from Europe and competed on the U.S. Junior Olympic Team. He was definitely a big asset to the team.

Again the Water Polo team continued to hold on to their winning tradition.

One More Goal

J.V. Water Polo Team members worked extremely hard all season. They had a great attitude and worked very well together. With a 20-0 game record, they stole the Moore League Championship, made unbelievable progress through the season, and reached their potentials as juniors. The starting team was composed of Jim Campbell (Goalie), Ryan Balance, Paul Hamdorf, Rich Fletcher, Tim Stanford, Tom Hermstead, and Mark Griffith. Ryan Balance was a strong team leader and good enough to play varsity most of the year. Paul Hamdorf was also very strong, a great outside shooter, fine defensive player, and had great knowledge of the game.

"One more goal," says the unbeatable sophomore water polo team, who was 24-1 and reversed their only loss when they replayed and beat Corona Del Mar. Some outstanding games won were University 4-3, Newport Harbor 7-6, and Sunny Hills 10-9. They also won the Moore League competition. The co-captains were Mark Griffith and Amos Merkle. The starting team was: Goalie — Mike Polsky and field players Mark Griffith, Dale Inskeep, Amos Merkle, Mike Riggs, Kraig Newkirk and Mitch Gamson. Coach Gruneisen said he enjoys coaching very much because it's one of the few areas in education where he gets the opportunity to observe a young person's physical and mental development over a three year period.

Varsity Girls Make Waves . . . Once Again

This year the Girls Varsity Swim Team had more senior swimmers than ever before. Out of thirty girls who made up the Varsity team, thirteen outstanding swimmers dominated the team. Some super seniors this year were: Jennifer Beattie, Cristy Cash, Rabia Cebeci, Leslie Fernald, Julie Gauger, Patti Giffall, Jen Lane, Kirsten Nielson and Jill Peasley. Also contributing to the awesome Varsity team were juniors: Julie Kay Berg, Danielle Mitchell, Debbie Scott, and Susan Shey. Besides these girls, the other dedicated swimmers contributed to the team effort. At the beginning of the season Coach Kemp said, "We will be number one, I have no doubt that we will take the league championship once again

The girls Varsity team worked well together. Each girl was an individual, but also donated to the team effort. This was just one aspect that made them number one. When asking a team member what she liked most about this year's team, she responded, "I liked the team spirit!" Altogether even with hard workouts and many cases of swimmer's ear, the girls had a great swim season

Definitely a Stroke in the Right Direction

Proven to be dedicated, talented and experienced, the Woodrow Wilson 1981-82 Mens' Tennis team had high aspirations this year. Mr. Bob Hendricks has been coaching tennis with Wilson since 1956 and is very proud of his team. This year, he feels that this is the deepest team he has ever had.

Leading the team was Brad Ackerman. He is ranked number one in the United States in his division and Pat Crow is ranked in the top ten in California. Ken Ohno was a finalist at the Long Beach Open and was a top player in Japan.

The whole team together put out great effort in attaining the goals which meant the most to them. They were very hopeful throughout the season, which sustained them throughout all of the matches. Dedicated, talented and experienced, they definitely had what it took to make the 1981-82 season a success.

Cross-Country Ran Past Predictions

The sign on the locker room wall said, "We run whether it rains or shines." This was an example of what it took this year to be a Varsity Cross-Country runner.

The Bruins had an exciting season when they did better than Coach Johnson's predictions. Coach Johnson conservatively predicted early in the season, "I suspect we will have three wins and two losses in the Moore League." After the team beat number two ranked Lakewood, Coach Johnson alleged, "I bet Lakewood was surprised when we beat them, but we really weren't surprised." The Bruins finished their season with a lot of spirit, but also suffered their only loss to Milikan who was their toughest opponent.

The predominately junior team was led by senior George Frazier, and juniors Bryant Bell and Jim MacLeod. Frazier, who had not been a top contender last year, surprised a lot of runners when he came back from extensive workouts last summer to place second in league finals. MacLeod, due to an injury, ended the season placing sixth in league finals. Coach Therese Jordan said of the team, "We'll be a top contender next year, and Bell and MacLeod are figured to have very strong seasons."

JV's Acquired Endurance

"It's an interesting way to get to know the city," jokingly stated Bill Ridgeway. He seriously added, "JV Cross-Country gives a person something to feel dedicated about."

He was right. Cross-Country runners were among the most dedicated athletes at Wilson. The Junior Varsity team put in as many as sixteen hours a week of practice during the season, not to mention workouts during the summer.

The most important thing a cross-country runner had to learn was endurance. Endurance was built up by workouts of up to twelve miles, and not all of that is flat terrain, either. Coaches demanded that runners traveled up and down Signal Hill roads. Seal Beach and Sunset Beach were other favorite places to run.

Since the Varsity team could have only seven runners in a race, the JV team was led by seniors John Rentena and Ramon San Agustin, and junior Leo Madnd.

The sophomore runners with real promise for the coming years were Orlando Mascarenaz, Mike Day, and Buddy Perez.

Gymnastics Team Beamed With Pride

Hours and hours of conditioning and preparation went into making a perfect routine, but all of the hard work paid off for this year's girls gymnastics team.

A typical workout to prepare for a meet consisted of coming in everyday and stretching out. After their muscles were warmed up, the girls were grouped and were sent to specific areas to work out on vault, bars, beam, or on floor routines.

Many talented gymnasts helped our team by giving precision performances at their meets. Kelli Douglas did outstandingly in all events, as did Dee Dee Jonson. Rising hopefuls on the team were Sri Johnson, Aimee Rowley, and Stephanie Sunderman.

Led by two coaches, Debbie Svopa and Veronica Boyle, the team had a great start as it prepared to beat its toughest competitors, Lakewood and Milikan. The goals for the gymnastics team, like other Wilson sport teams, were to win the league competitions and to go to C.I.F. Finals. For the past two years the team took the league and even had a few girls go to C.I.F. prelims. Coach Debbie Svopa hopes that all of the girls learn something new on the team, and make lasting friendships.

Moore League Proved Competitive

Varsity Basketball had a tough season this year. Coach Jim Ferguson stated, "Although we've had a fine team this year, Moore League is very competitive. Games have had a tendency to come down to the wire."

The team's pre-season record was 7-7. One of the most exciting portions of pre-season was when the team placed second in the competitive Katella Tournament. Their only loss in the tournament was to crosstown rival Milikan. Coach Ferguson said then, "If you told me when we started this tournament, we would play for the title against Milikan I wouldn't have believed you."

Injuries handicapped the Bruins early in pre-season. Junior forward John Nickerson, who had been out after surgery on his ankle, admitted sitting on the bench was "frustrating." Senior forward and returning letterman Pat Senske averaged 25 points a game in pre-season, though he was only about 75 per cent recovered from tendinitis in his knee. Senske said of pre-season, "I was pleased with the way the team progressed."

The five juniors on the team were some of the Bruins' biggest assets. Center Steve Brooks, Guard Bruce Fraser and Forward John Nickerson were three of the five starters during Moore League, and the two other juniors, Aldo Saglietto and Kevin Calloway, traded off with seniors, Bruce Williams and Jamie Sells at being the first man off the bench (the sixth man). Fraser acknowledged, "We feel privileged to be able to start in our junior year."

Mixed Reviews for Basketball

The Junior Varsity Boys Basketball team suffered a difficult season this year. Coach Mario Jiminez said of the team, "Although the team hasn't won many games, they're an aggressive group of young men on the court." One good player was guard Sam Reyburn. Sam left the Varsity squad in order to get more playing time as a J.V. player. Other fine performances were made by Brad Hauser, Keith Franklin, Todd Parker, Erik Prosser, Scott Meyer, and Win Edson. Todd Parker predicted, "Next year, the Varsity squad has a good chance to make it to CIF."

The Sophomore and Sophomore Reserve Basketball teams had an excellent pre-season. The pre-season record for the Sophomores was 7-3 and the Reserves' record was 6-1. Sophomore Coach Kevin Jones named Steve Segelhorst and Lance Ringheim as the most outstanding players. Tommy Griggs, Russ Cauffman, and Erick Weiss were listed by Coach Bob Sparks as the most valuable Reserves, and Greg Burnight was most improved.

Accomplishing The Best of it All

Our Girl's Basketball teams have done an impressive job this year. They had dedication, motivation, and the will of a hard working team that we can be proud of. Miss Mora was so proud of her team, she said she couldn't ask for a harder working group. The team got along very well, which is the key reason why so much improvement took place. The team gained a lot of experience and played good basketball in pressure situations. They improved with every game, with scores much closer than prior years. In setting their goals, they worked hard to retain and to fulfill their accomplishments. As far as motivation was concerned they figured that as their skills improved, their confidence followed. Congratulations Girls Basketball

Varsity Fought Through Season

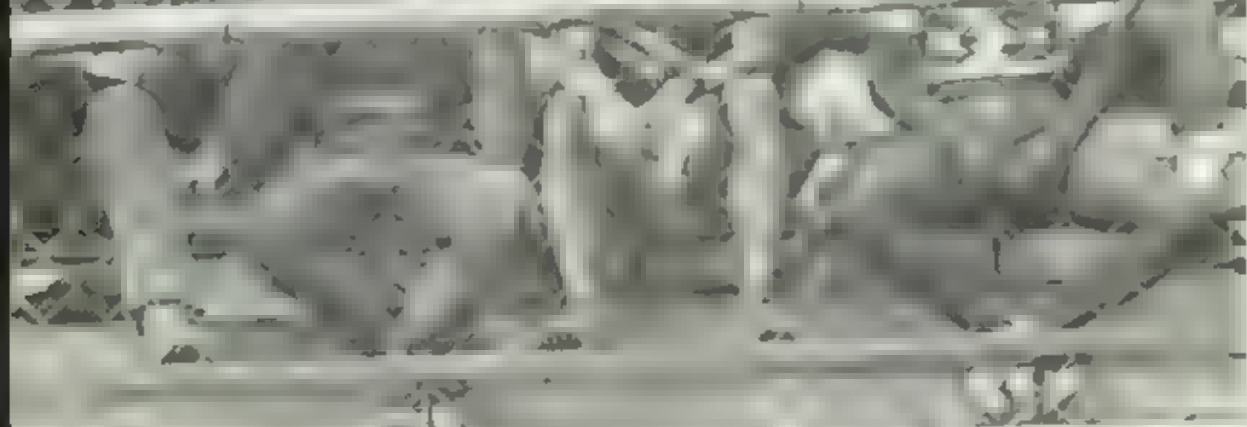

Under Head Coach Jim Johnson's supervision, the Boys Varsity Track team fought out a difficult season. The only returning lettermen were shot-putter Tory Pankopf, high jumper and pole vaulter Bruce Williams, and long distance runners John Rentena and George Frazier. Although the team was smaller and younger this year, Tory Pankopf acknowledged, "We may be a small team, but we're a close team."

Track and field pulls in athletes from many other sports. Football and basketball players often are involved in track. Cross-country, also traditionally brings in many runners. After athletes finish out their fall sports, they begin the long and tough practices for track. As an example, distance runners may have to run ten to sixteen miles in a single day.

Junior Robert Patterson had an outstanding season in both the long jump and the 330 low hurdles, as he broke meet records in both events. The team was also led by long jumpers and sprinters Dinesh Madawala and Jason Sodenkamp, triple jumper and hurdler Mike Zarfes, high jumper Kevin Holloway, high jumper and pole vaulter Bruce Williams, long distance runner and pole vaulter Bryant Bell, pole vaulter John Sheldon, sprinters and hurdlers Freddie Heath and Rafael Vergara, hurdler Ramon SanAgustin, shot-putters Tory Pankopf, Chuck Thomas, and Keola Smith, and long distance runners George Frazier, Eric Lonsway, and John Rentena.

Tracksters Showed Determination

The Junior Varsity and Sophomore Track teams learned that interest, hard work, and a genuine desire to succeed were what it took to act competitively on the track and in the field.

Both teams won a few and lost a few, but had members that will fair well in their future Varsity careers. Scott Meyer and Aaron Bridges in the high jump, Guy Nyre, Jon Blanton, and Todd Wiesenhutter in the long distance events, Hector Walker in the hurdles, and Undray Jackson in the sprints were all outstanding members of the Junior Varsity team. Hurdler and pole vaulter Shawn O'Donnell, sprinter Victor Parker, and distance runner Mike Day all finished strong for the Sophomore team.

1 Junior Varsity runner Jon Blanton completes his first lap in the 880 with hopes to put some points in the books. Sophomore Ross Horn starts to speed up for a good finish in the two-mile race. Super Soph Shawn O'Donnell races toward his next hurdle in the 330 low hurdles.

Girls' Track Inspires Many

The Girls' Track Team was a small hard working team that had young athletes with a lot of talent. Sophomore Dons Painter was an outstanding two miler and 880 yard runner. Michelle Motley, also a sophomore, was competitive in the 220, 440, and the long jump. She also set three school records.

In the long jump Michelle set a new record with a distance of 16' 9" and she also broke the 440 record in 61 seconds. These marks are very impressive for a sophomore girl.

Because of the team's size, they lacked the depth to be competitive against their larger opponents. Every Wilson student who came to the meets gave their full support for an inspiring group of girls.

Swimmers Succeed One More Time

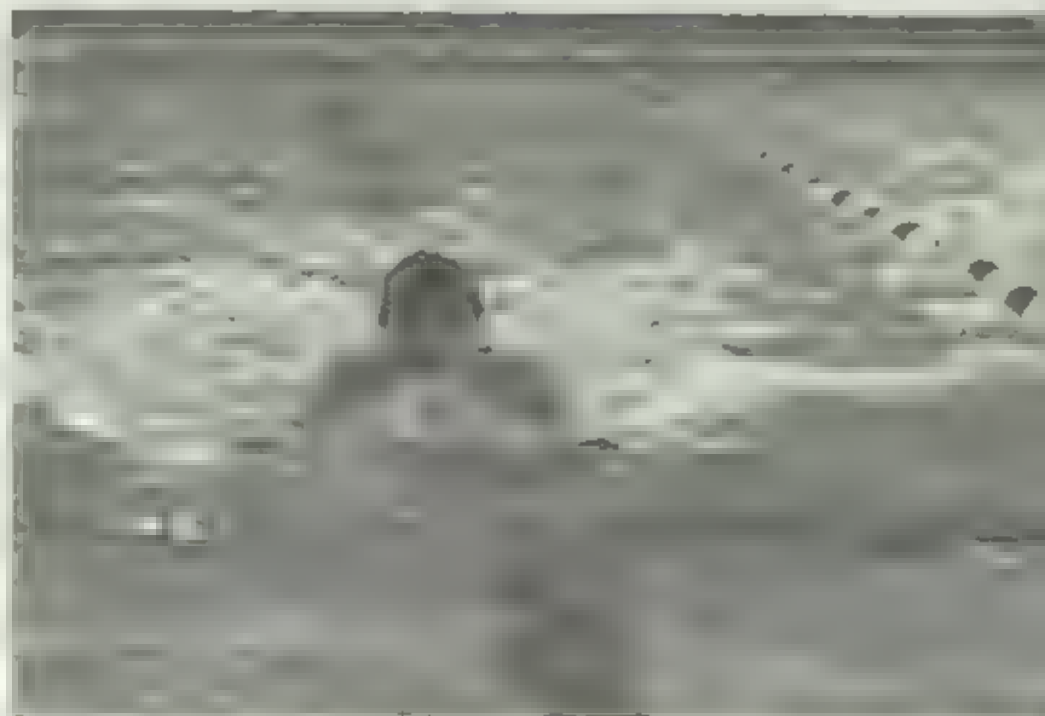

Attitude and dedication played major roles in the inspiration of the Varsity swim team. The team worked out twice a day, swimming 10,000 yards and lifting weights in an effort to continue the tradition of outstanding swimming at Wilson. The number one goal of the team was to win Moore League, which they have achieved for eleven consecutive years. The swimming standouts were Kurt McCloud, Scott Morrison, Eric Eider and Doug Bolicek.

The outstanding JV swimmers were Paul Hamdorf, Tim Stanford, Mike Griffith and Ryan Ballance. Top sophomore swimmers were Mark Griffith, Mike Riggs, Amos Merkle, Dale Inskip, Ben Lampson, Jay Cahan, Brent Ward, Dave Lyman, Brenden Shea and Mike Polsky. We have an excellent group of sophomore and junior swimmers, so the future looks bright.

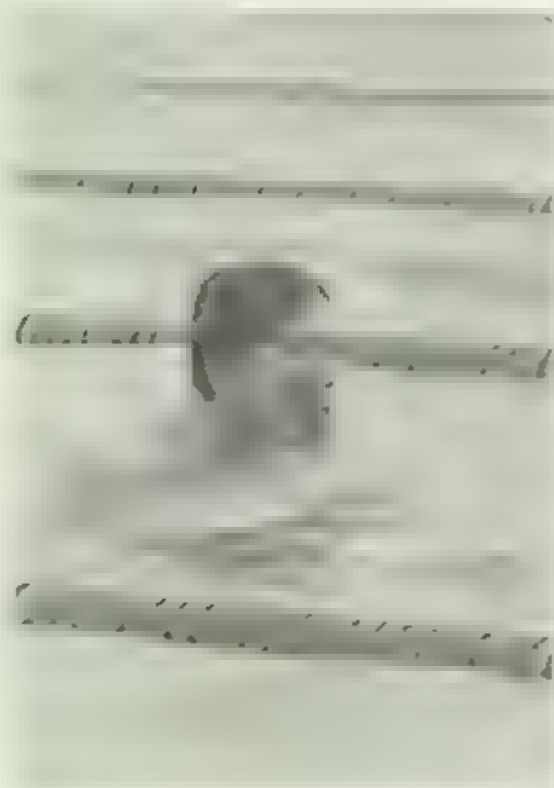

Coach Gruneisen commented, "We get great talent into our program year after year and we have a long winning tradition that our swimmers take pride in upholding."

Bruin Golfers Get Into The Swing of Things

This year's golf team was one of the best ever. The team members put in many hours each week so they could perfect their skills and end up on top. Under the outstanding coaching of Mrs. Marty Walker, the six returning varsity golfers led the team to excellence. This year's returning varsity lettermen were; Paul Goydos, Matt Lundin, Ben Krenwinkel, Mike Cincola, Hugh Brown, and Mark Weisman. Meeting the demands of hard work and concentration, the team had an excellent season.

The Winning Feeling

It was the feeling of the game of softball that kept you on your toes. You were the next batter and there were already two outs. There were also runners on first and third. You found you had that jittery feeling so familiar to your stomach. Luckily, the batter before you made it to first base on a bunt. So it was up to you. The bases were loaded and that knot in your stomach was getting tighter and tighter. As you stepped up to the plate, you took a few practice swings in the air. The first pitch was low and outside. The second pitch was a perfect strike. You had the feeling that the next pitch was going to be the one. The next ball was a perfect pitch, straight down the plate, waiting for you to take the advantage. Your swing was swift and solid. The ball was soaring across the field, not too high, not too low, but straight over center field. By the time you rounded first, the girl on third was now home and safe. By the time you advanced to second, the player on second was on her way to third. You saw the outfielder fumble with the ball. You rounded third and your coach yelled "Go for it." Out of the corner of your eye you saw the ball being thrown in. You ran so swiftly that you were half of the way home before you knew it. All the way you thought that the ball was a quarter of an inch behind you, which made you run faster and faster. You were aiming for home plate with all of your effort and winning strides. This was the moment that would make or break the game. You had that winning feeling as you touched home in a triumphant victory for your team. You were swept up in a world of glory by your teammates, all sharing the great feeling of being a team. You didn't do it alone; everyone helped each other out. It was great to be a part of a winning team and to share in the victories.

All of our Bruin softball players sure came a long way from Bobby Sox. All of their dedicated determination paid off. Our softball players again upheld the winning tradition of Wilson.

Bruin Wrestlers, Kings of the mat

Names such as, The smiling wrestler, Yoda, and Hai good-bye Ngyen probably didn't mean anything to you but to Wilson's Junior Varsity and Varsity Wrestling team it meant winning matches

"This was one of the best bruin squads ever," Coach Mark Rappaport said. "We're twice as good as anyone in heart."

The bruin wrestlers had two returning league champs, Ron Sturges, and Lamar Caudell. Varsity wrestlers Hai Ngyen, Dave Dorsett, Steve Garcia, Diego Gastelum, and Eric Sakuri all did an awesome job this year

Some may wonder why these wrestlers wrestle. Maybe because you meet girls, or you can use one-hundred percent of your strength, or maybe because it's just plain fun. But the one thing that all the wrestlers agree on is that wrestling is about the toughest sport there is because you have to go out there alone. You have no quarterback, and you have no guard. It's just you and your opponent. Only the best will survive, and Wilson wrestlers were the best

Birdies Sail Over Rivals

Badminton is Wilson's only competitive sport in which the athletes are unfamiliar with the sport until they reach high school. It is most rewarding to teach the skills to beginners and watch them become champions," Coach Janet Mason stated. Wilson has been lucky to have consistently outstanding teams. When asked what their chances were of claiming a sixth consecutive Moore League Championship, Mrs. Mason replied, "Excellent! Five of our players are returning members of the varsity team. It is very unlikely they will be defeated." Kris Montgomery has been on the team all three of her years at Wilson. Some of the most outstanding players this year on the varsity team were Janet Kim and Kris Montgomery. Outstanding JV players that can also help next year's badminton team were Kim Malet and Modita Sisowath.

New Coach New Look

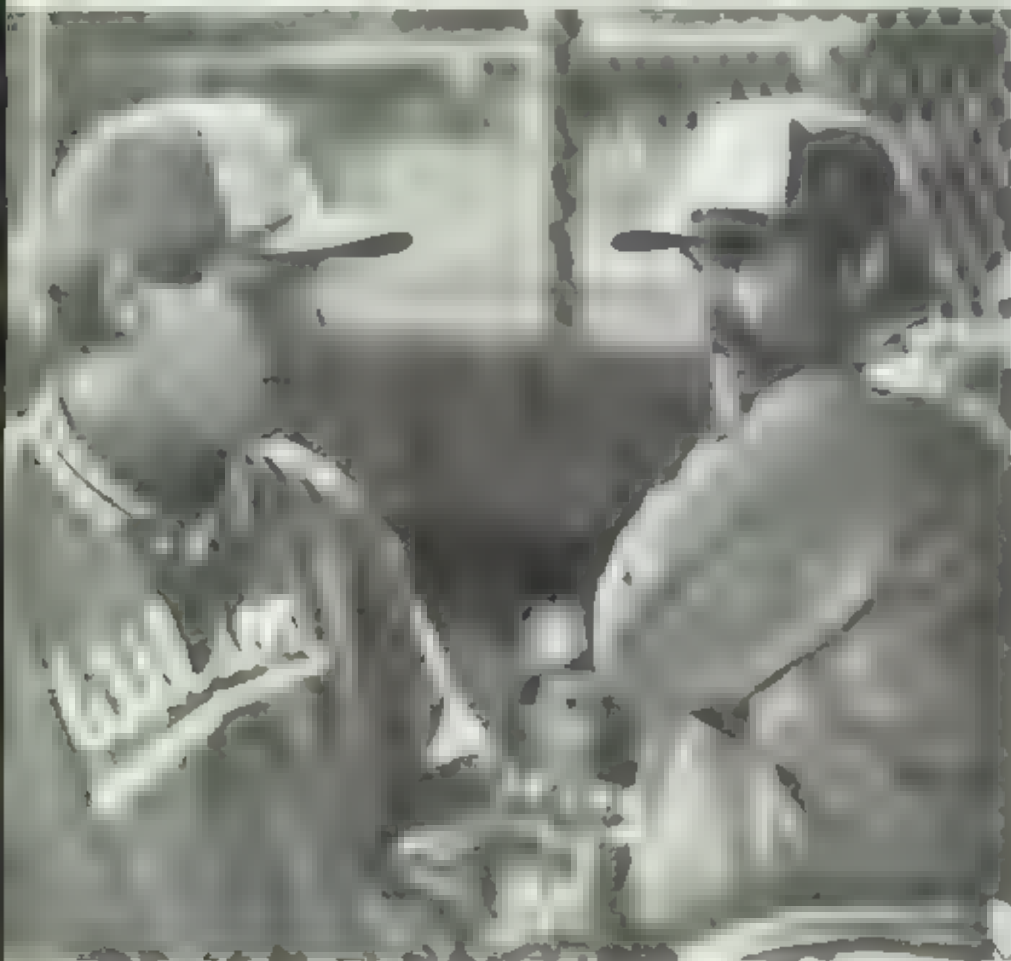

The 1982 Wilson Baseball team had a new head coach, new uniforms, and an all around new look. Pete Tereschuk, last year's assistant coach, inherited the job of head coach after Skip Rowland retired. One of the new looks for the team was their bright red and gold uniforms. Coach Tereschuk's game plan was to get both his Varsity and Junior Varsity teams in the El Segundo preseason tournament. Both teams showed strong effort towards the season placing seventh out of thirty teams. Varsity player Bob Barham mentioned, "I like being in the tournament because it gives you a great deal of practice so you are ready for the season." As far as the season went, the team did very well in the first round of the Moore League games defeating Jordan 3-1 at Blair Field and then coming back and beating Compton 3-0. The Bruin baseball team continued with their strong play and good teamwork throughout the season.

Dynamic Duo Boosts Wilson Spirit

Who added the most spirit and enthusiasm to our football games? Our mascots, Woody and Wilbur!

These two energetic students not only sparked the spirit of fans in the stands, but also helped boost energy in the football players as well as the pepsters and yell squad.

Wilson's tradition has been to keep the identities of our two loveable Bruin Bears a secret until announced in the yearbook. This year's WOODY was HOLLY WADE and WILBUR was none other than MATT LINDEN.

Both Matt and Holly amused, delighted, and entertained audiences at football games with their crazy and imaginative antics.

The Magnificent Band

"This year's Band, Tall Flag, Pepsters, Bruinettes, and two super majorettes worked very hard to present the half time shows which I felt were very outstanding. I'm very proud of their work, and was especially pleased with the excellent leadership of our two drum majors, Ernie Flores and Mike Gabe," stated a proud Mr. Sandberg. This year was one of the busiest ever, since the band presented five half time shows, four of them on consecutive weeks. Wilson's Marching Band also performed pregame shows at Poly, Lakewood, and Millikan football games, which were away games. During the first week of school the band played at the Milk Bowl. Later in the year the Pep Band traveled to Santa Barbara for the CIF play-offs. The spectacular 175 member Marching Band sparkled as they formed the Sunburst, Stage, Company Fronts, Concert Formation, 1981 Formation, Arc Formation, "V", Crossroads, and "W", while marching to the snappy tunes of 'Zing It', "Rappin' On", "Rock Right On," "King of the Road", "Fight", "Wilsonia", and other Wilson school songs. The Marching Band also made an outstanding showing at Disneyland on January 23. "I'm fortunate to have such great co-workers helping prepare the shows. My thanks to Mrs. Kemp, Mrs. Mason, Mr. Hoekman, Mr. Holmes, Mr. Mays, Janet Young, Frances Long, and Jack Gerra," added a beaming Mr. Sandberg.

After the marching season, you may have heard this band as it divided into the concert band and the symphonic band. They presented two concerts during the second semester, the Scholarship Concert in March, and the Spring Concert in May.

Fall Government: A Needed Boost

This year's Fall Government was as dedicated and as spirited as ever. The government spent many hours planning Homecoming and the "Roman Days" theme was a great success.

It was a year of firsts for Fall Government. During the week of Thanksgiving, students could buy carnations and have them sent to a friend in their seventh period class along with a card on which they could write a message. They also opened up a new government office, Campus Control President. Because of this new office, Wilson experienced one of its cleanest years.

The government did a fantastic job building up student spirit, dedication, and enthusiasm. Thanks to them, all student life was well represented.

Just Roman' Around . . .

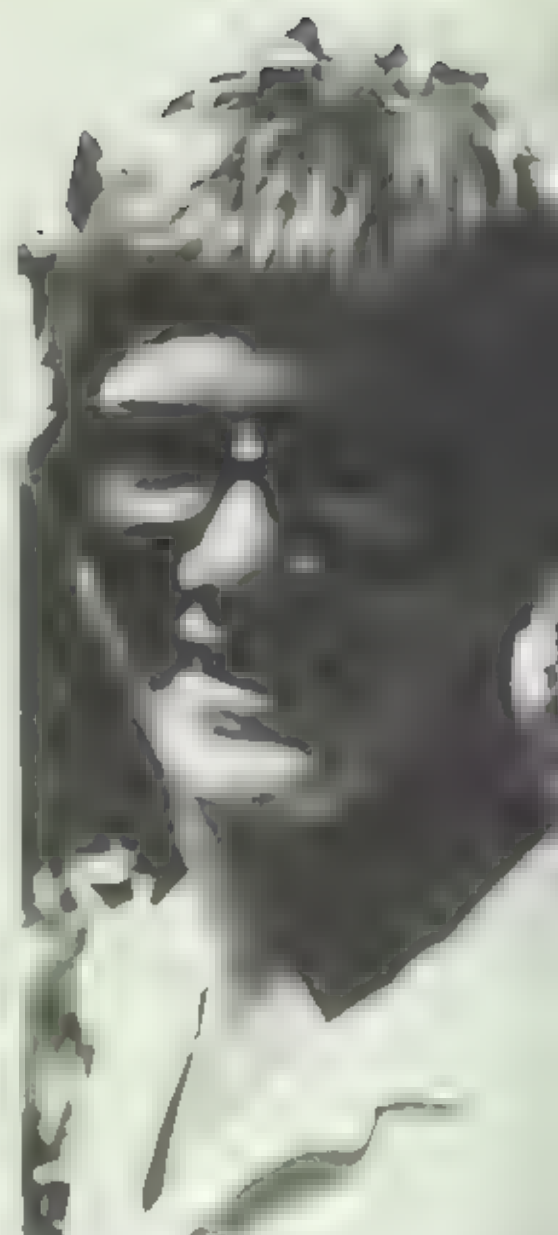

Spectators claim they saw hundreds of Julius Ceasars Roman' around, however, they were spirited Wilson students carrying on the Homecoming tradition

For some, "Roman Days" began at 4:30 in the morning when a good majority of Laura Wilson's Sophomore Class showed up, and were ready to start setting up the day's festivities. As first year activities director Richard DeCoudres put it, "I couldn't believe the enthusiasm the sophomores showed toward Homecoming . . . a big asset!

Student Council spent many hard-working hours planning our October 16th festivities. While Anne Marie Kaesman coordinated booth placement, Susan Rodriguez was sending out invitations to alumni Pepsters, cheerleaders and Bruinettes who came back to show their Wilson spirit. Leslie Deukmejian and Liz Barkis took the responsibility of selecting the antique cars that escorted the Homecoming court, as well as choosing bouquets of flowers and the gold charms that were given to each of the princesses.

Holly Wade organized the Homecoming rally in which both alumni and Wilson students were entertained by present and past cheerleaders, Pepsters, and Bruinettes who showed they still had school spirit. At the rally, we saw Alana Fairbanks crowned Sophomore princess, Stephanie Woodard crowned Junior princess, and Lori Houston, Toni Miller, and Tricia Pillsbury were all crowned Senior princesses. Before our traditional Homecoming football game, alumni Homecoming queen Ten Jensen, crowned her successor, Ms. Tricia Pillsbury, as our 1981 Homecoming queen.

Indeed it was a joyous night for all, as Wilson beat Jordan 31-28 for a Homecoming victory.

Pepsters Sparkle With Spirit

This year's Pepsters boosted spirit and provided sparkle wherever they went. They learned new, exciting routines, and were invited to perform at Disneyland. During nutrition rallies, people stopped munching and gathered around the quad to see the Pepsters' energetic routines. A loud, heartfelt cheer of "Wail" was heard when the drummers allowed a second's pause during "Rock Out." One early rally watcher exclaimed, "Their routines are really fabulous!" Head Pepster — Majorette Paula Brotz explained this by saying, "We worked every day last summer, and I think it's really paid off. This year's group worked as a team which helps everyone look better."

Before the Moore League football games had begun, Jordan organized a get together for all of the Pepsters in the five district high schools. They spent a day getting to know one another and each team showed the rest their routines. "It was a neat experience for us," Mary Lockington commented.

This year Jill Michner returned to the squad, joining Paula as a fellow baton twirler. They both strutted before the band doing daring feats and flashing white smiles.

Orchestra ain't just fiddlin' around

An orchestra made up of exceptionally talented students is a tradition here at Wilson, and this year was no exception.

Under the direction of conductor Rolland Sandberg, with the help of concert mistress Camilla Radford, the orchestra started the year off on a good note with the presentation of their annual Fall concert. Some of the selections played were: "Marche Militaire," "Tara" from Gone With The Wind, "American Salute," and "Perpetuum Mobile," which featured violinists Camilla Radford and Mary McKelvy.

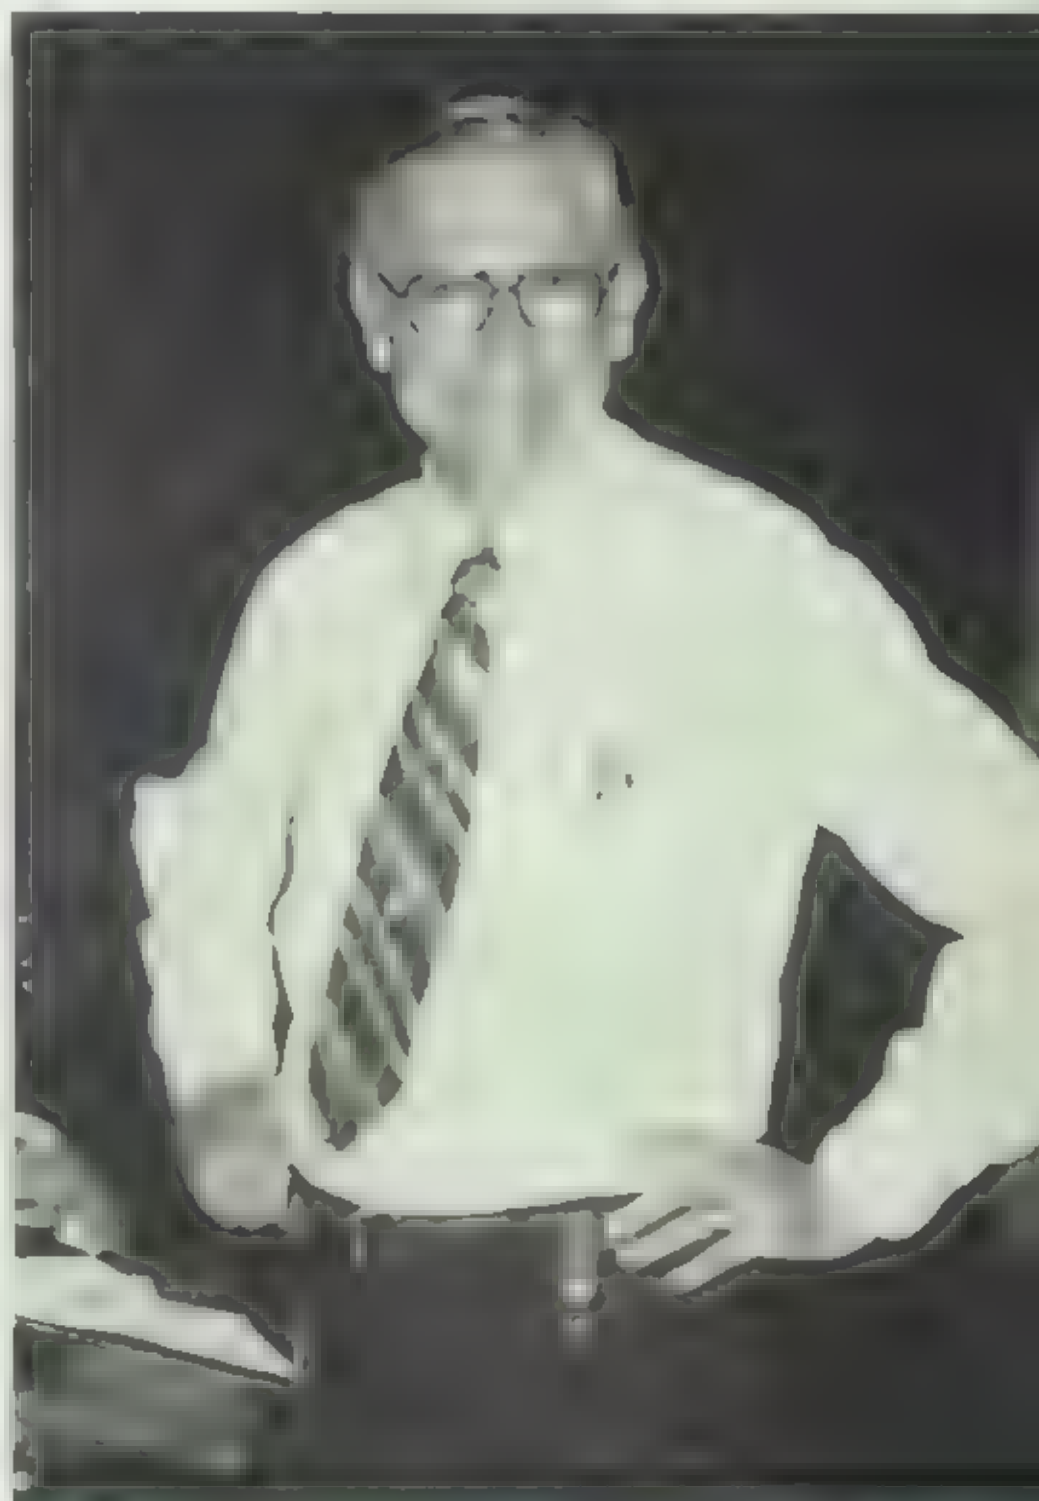

The next performance on their list was the Holiday concert in which both the orchestra and choral groups performed the traditional Alleluiah Chorus.

The orchestra also performed Spring and Scholarship concerts.

When the orchestra was not performing, the group practiced hard to do well in a festival in San Diego. Their practice paid off, for they received superior ratings, which was no surprise.

Bruinettes Rock Right On

"Guide up, File down, and Smile." This was just one of the commands Bruins might have heard from Wilson's head Bruinettes Jessica Bell and Liz Fort. They said, "We love being head Bruinette," and "We have fun telling 82 girls to smile." Mrs. Janet Mason has been the Bruinette sponsor for the past seven years, dedicating all of her time and effort in supporting them. The Bruinettes worked extremely hard to perfect their four consecutive home game performances. This year the Bruinettes rocked around the track with "Rock Right On". They were specially featured this year in "Hat's Off," "Nightbeat," and their awesome company front, "Solid Soul." Of course, they all had an excellent time marching down Main Street at Disneyland once again. Even with all the hot days, bad ankles, and shin splints, the Bruinettes had an outstanding year

In Tune With The 80's

Ever since 1963 there has been a jazz band at Wilson. The only director we've ever had has been Mr. Rowland Sandberg. This outstanding twenty-one member jazz band attended festivals at Chaffey College, San Bernadino State, Los Alamitos, and the state finals in Monterey. "Being in the jazz band is a lot of hard work, but it's worthwhile," said Karla Miller, who also added that, "Mr. Sandberg is the best director, ever." Ruth Conroy also stated, "This jazz band has done outstandingly in competition. It's inspiring to play with such outstanding musicians." This spectacular band's soloists are Mark Coleman, tenor sax; Neil Hubbard, alto sax; Chris Putney, trumpet; and Scott Allen, trumpet. This talented group has been broadcasted on three radio stations, one of which was KK-GO jazz. "These students have a lot of talent and are very dedicated to the jazz band and the musical department," Mr. Sandberg stated. This explains why the music department has done so well in competition. The jazz band performed at the internationally known Monterey Jazz Festival September eighteenth, nineteenth, and twentieth with other jazz artists from around the world. The success of this tremendous jazz band will continue throughout the years.

Yell Loved Wilson

Performing at every Football, Basketball and Water Polo game, not to mention Friday rallies, this year's Varsity Yell Squad was extremely dedicated to the promotion of school spirit. The squad attempted to encourage crowd spirit with new chants and yells. The biggest and most important part of this year's squad was their enthusiasm and original personality which they put into every cheer

The members of the squad were chosen after a very competitive tryout late last year. The yell squad wasted no time getting themselves organized. As soon as summer vacation began, they started practicing every weekday at 7:30 a.m

In July the squad went to the Camp of Champs in San Diego at the UCSD campus. They brought home a trophy for being the most improved group, two superior ribbons, and one excellent ribbon. Once school started, the squad was busy nearly everyday trying to keep the Wilson spirit alive

"It was a challenge", said Richard DeCoudres, our new activities director and sponsor of the yell squads. The squad showed us their positive outlook with their cheers. The squad worked for hours on timing and perfected their cheers with great enthusiasm and dedication. The all-girl squad consisted entirely of juniors: Lynn Arney, Nancy Bailey, Caroline Gebb, Sally Hess, Diana Johnson, Pam Mitchell, Pat Thornton, and Stephanie Woodard. During the summer they participated in the U.S.A. Cheer Leading Camp, where they learned to enhance and develop their cheers.

Spirited "Echoes"

Mrs. Janet Mason has taught dance for eight and a half years at Wilson. The dance concert, which was performed on April thirtieth and May first, was Mrs. Mason's ninth Wilson concert. Over the years, the dance department has grown from one small advanced class and one semester intermediate class to four full year classes with approximately 200 students.

Mrs. Mason believes she enhanced the educational experience of all participants. Students of dance develop greater self confidence, poise, and graceful movement. The students learned to choreograph and became more creative, responsible and developed leadership qualities. Those who participated in the concert learned how to work within a scheduled time line, and recognized the value of being highly organized. The theme for the 1982 dance concert was "Echoes." The theme allowed for a vast range of expression. The audience was thrilled with many different styles of dance: ballet, tap, modern, jazz, comedy, character, and the new and exciting poplocking.

There were approximately twenty-two dances with approximately eighty-five students involved. The advanced class is primarily responsible for the concert each year. However, one dance is permitted from each of the beginning classes and one from the intermediate class. Outstanding dancers this year were seniors: Becky Bollman, Debby Hastain, Dawn Hopson, Michelle Levendusky; juniors: Nadia Abu-Dayyeh, Carlynn Dick, Joy Goodman, Tiffanie Johnson, Tracey McQuarn; sophomores: Shauna Decoux, Susan Inge, Pua Kapu, and Heather Peck.

Drama Department Saw Changes

Changes were evident in everything the Drama Department did this year. In the November production of Night of January 16th, twelve jurors from the audience decided the outcome of the court trial drama. The third year students then produced playlets from classic children's stories and toured elementary schools heralded as the Rainbow Players. Second year students had a chance to perform in one act plays directed by six third year seminar directors in January and also later in April. For many, it was their first chance to perform in front of a large audience.

A fresh face, student teacher Amy Gottlieb, assisted Mr. Bowden with his first and second-year classes. Miss Gottlieb also assistant directed Up the Down Staircase, the spring Drama Club production. A big change was that Staircase was single cast. With one cast, the players performed four nights, and also held a special performance for the PTA.

A brand new addition to the year of productions was Best of 1981-82 performed in the spring. Students tried out with their favorite scenes, and Mr. Bowden was discovered acting in it also.

Mr. Bowden got one surprise of his own when he was awarded a medallion for outstanding service by the L.A. County schools. He was one of five teachers picked from the Long Beach area.

Campanile Staff Gave It Their All

Under the new leadership of Ms. June Garner, this year's Campanile Staff worked to create the greatest Wilson yearbook ever. Ms. Garner could be heard screaming words of encouragement such as, "Don't miss the deadline" and, "Make your copy interesting!" Co-editors Denise Cicotte and Thea Stammerjohn dedicated many tireless hours and sleepless nights organizing the 1981-82 annual. With the inspiration and guidance of a new publishing company, represented by Bill Milne, the staff was able to combine creativity with efficiency. Super photographers Hugh Rose and Laura Oberjuege, could be seen at all times trying to capture the perfect picture. They contributed time and energy, taking the majority of the pictures in this yearbook. The Campanile Staff, of twenty members was required to write copy, create headlines, schedule pictures, and layout the many pages of this annual. The difficult task of capturing this school year in a book was tackled by the courageous staff. Without their diligent work, there would be no recorded memories of this year at Wilson. Hopefully, the pride that the Campanile members have in this yearbook will be shared by the entire student body, faculty, school staff and administration.

Loudspeaker Heard Across Campus

Pick the subject, get the story assignment, interview the people involved, write the story, type it on a layout, make sure everything is turned in on time, and then you have the Loudspeaker's news, features, editorials, and sports.

Under the leadership of advisor Mr. Pete Tereschuk and editor-in-chief Todd Gates, the Loudspeaker staff worked hard to produce several issues of Loudspeaker during the year.

Other key members of the staff were the page editors. They were feature editor Todd Johnson, editorial editor Bill Lakoff, and sports editor Kelly San Jose.

This year's Loudspeaker staff tried to show Wilson students, faculty and administration what's brain.

Spring Council Explodes

Spring Government picked up where the fall government left off by getting started on one of the biggest projects of the semester, Charactor Day. This project was inherited by spring president Tory Pankopf, who, with the rest of the council, made every attempt to make Charactor Day a large success

Spring council's appointed officer, Pat Raney and other appointed people, did a wonderful job on the trophy case

With fifteen elected officers, eleven appointed officers and Mr. DeCoudres, spring council exploded with super ideas

Elected officers: Tory Pankopf, Katie Warno, Lisa Graves, Tracy Hailer, Jessica Bell, Jon Atzen, Candi Wright, Jason Beebe, Lynda Fox, Diana Johnson, Laura Wilson, Liz Barks, Bob Barham, Nancy Bailey, and Kelly San Jose

Notes of Success

When asked to describe this year's vocal department Mrs. Carla Strandberg showed her pride and enthusiasm for the groups when she stated, "This is another good year for choral music at Wilson. The spirit is high and the students are proud to be a part of a successful program." The vocal department is made up of four groups: A Cappella Choir, Choraliers, Chorus, and our top vocal group, The Chamber Singers

All four groups have performed in many concerts and festivals throughout the year. School performances consisted of the Fall pops concert, "It's A Grand Night For Singing," The Winter Holiday Concert, a Scholarship Concert in May, and singing for Vespers and Commencement. The Choral Department also put on a "Broadway Musica Review." It included scenes from many Broadway musicals and showed the performing talents of the entire department in musical theater.

Besides performing here at Wilson, the vocal groups also attended many festivals. A Cappella Choir and Chamber Singers went to an All District Music Festival at Jordan in March, and were also judged in a festival at L. B. C. C. The Choraliers and Chorus also attended a festival in the spring.

The Chamber Singers, our top vocal group, sang 'out for community groups eighteen times in the first semester along with many other times during the second semester. They have a well respected reputation in the community for their good sound, confident performances, and pleasing appearance," commented Mrs. Strandberg. With much pride she also stated, "There is a sense of mutual respect and support between the group members and between the various groups in the department."

NJROTC Kept in Step

The 81-82 NJROTC has participated in many events such as local parades, city and national competition. NJROTC also competed for a city championship. Captain Kermit W. Montz, U.S.N. (retired) and Radioman Chief Petty Officer John Burke, U.S.N. (retired) taught this group of cadets discipline, order and leadership. Wilson's outstanding drill team was led by Robert Pfister, Junior, and color guard was led by Angel Pereria, Junior. Academically, cadets learned about naval history, navigation, leadership and meteorology. Naval science increased everyone's qualifications for NJROTC scholarships to colleges and universities. These people enjoyed being part of NJROTC and planned to continue their career.

Sailing Team Keeps in Tack

A strong interest and the ability to sail were the only prerequisites for being a member of the sailing club at Wilson, and the members of this year's club proved they had both the interest and a large amount of talent

Club members practiced as often as they could, usually after school and on Saturdays. Some members practiced with the Cal. State Sailing team. The state team allowed the Wilson club to borrow their boats also. They sailed 14 ft F-J's

The purpose behind all these hours of practice was to improve their skills both individually and as a team, and to be able to qualify for a spot on the sailing team. A new team was picked before every competition. The members would compete in sail-offs and the winners would form a team that represented the school in the competition

One such competition was the Cotton Bowl Regatta which took place over Christmas vacation in Fort Worth, Texas. This contest was attended by high schools all over country where Wilson's Sailing Team ranked third in the nation

Waterski Club in Tenth Year

When founded ten years ago, the purpose of the waterski club was to ski and have fun. Ten years later the club was still functioning with the same goals.

On Saturdays, when the weather was nice, the waterski club met at the Marina where they skied from four to six hours.

Sponsor Dennis Richman, who started the club in 1972, drove the boat while members took turns skiing. Boats were provided by both Mr. Richman and the members.

Backpackers Climb To The Top

This year's Backpacking Club, sponsored by Mr. Marty Kallenberger, was a small but well organized club. The club offered Wilson students a chance to get away from the drudgery of everyday life into the fresh, exhilarating air of the mountains. The club traveled to such places as Arroyo Seco, Bear Canyon, and up the Palm Springs tram to Round Valley. Mr. Kallenberger, an experienced backpacker, encourages students to join this club by saying, "It gives hikers the opportunity to enjoy and learn much about nature and the outdoors."

Skiers Swoosh Down The Slopes

A trip to Jackson Hole, Wyoming started off the 1981-82 Ski Club season this year. Mr. Pete Tereschek, the fearless leader of the many membered Ski Club, braved through sub-zero weather at Jackson Hole and made the ski trip a memorable experience for Wilson students. This very popular club also ventured to Vail over Easter vacation. All the skiers seemed to enjoy the ski trips because they were able to vacation with friends and also ski at some beautiful locations. Because of the large size of the Ski Club and legal matters, the club was unable to assemble for a picture.

Mechanics Create The Perfect Engine

Every morning during first period one could see the members of the Automobile Club working diligently to perfect their cars. Whether it was installing new headlights, new brakes, or merely changing a tire, the club was always busy at work. With the organization of President, Eric Mears, and Sponsor, Mr. Lindeman, the club continually improved upon their automobiles. This club was very successful for Wilson students because the correct balance of fun with work was achieved.

Opening the Door to Key Club

With 150 members in this service club, the door was always open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The magic keys to being selected to the club's membership were your activities, conduct, and grades.

Our Key Club was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, which invited members to luncheons every Thursday. On Wednesday nights, Key Club members played bingo at the Emprice Convelescent Center, and cheered up the residents. Members, along with faithful sponsor Joel Tankenson, sang harmonious Christmas carols during the holidays, as well as hosting several pot-luck dinners.

Herezzz ZYGOMAS

Have you ever seen those mouth-watering chocolate chip cookies, or that plate of brownies that you just wanted to sink your teeth in, but you saw your favorite Varsity Water Polo Player, or Football Player holding those little goodies? You can thank the Z Girls for putting you through that agony. These twenty Zygomas Girls were constantly promoting school spirit, no matter what the sport. During some of the Friday rallies, Zygomas crowned their Z-Creep, who was usually the outstanding athlete of the week. Some of their tattered Z T-shirts dated all the back to 1960, and some looked everyday of it.

There was a lot of tradition in Zygomas, which was definitely visable throughout the year.

Center of Optimism

The Junior Optimists are a service club to Wilson and the community of Long Beach. They provided Thanksgiving dinner for a needy family, visited hospitals at Christmas, and participated in Homecoming by having one of the best decorated booths.

Junior Optimist's ultimate goal was to provide services and to take on new projects that will help make the community a better place to live.

Mr. Joe Henderson has been the faithful sponsor of this service club for the past three years at Wilson. The members and Mr. Henderson get along very well, because they all want a better way of life for them as well as for others.

The Top of The League

Another helpful service club was The Bruins League. It was composed of tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders. They sponsored special events such as the Sophomore picnic, the Holiday Social, the Pizza Party, Homecoming and the reception for the graduating class. They had terrific success in everything they did and it all worked out well.

President Leah Newman, Vice President Janet Gangoff, secretary Nancy Baily, and treasurer Debbie McCulley, along with fantastic support from the body of the club made this year easier to get through, with all the happy memories they have provided for us.

Mrs. Parker has been head Sponsor for two years. She enjoys working with youth. Sponsoring the Bruins League gave her an opportunity to see students demonstrating skills outside the classroom.

Scores of Scholars In CSF-NHS

Under the sponsorship of counselors, Paul Honey and Marcine Landon, the California Scholarship Federation and National Honors Society enjoyed a very fulfilling year. To have been a member of NHS, students must have achieved at least a 3.5 grade point average and have had good citizenship. CSF required students to have had ten scholarship points, having received three points for every 'A' and one point for every 'B'. The large number of students who were members of CSF-NHS were a credit to Wilson High. Wilson truly had "scores of scholars."

4.0 — Perfect Achievement

This year at Wilson there were twenty-one students with perfect achievement. They earned straight "A's" in five consecutive semesters which gave them a 4.0 grade point average. Having this perfect grade average gave them the honor of wearing gold robes at graduation. This outstanding accomplishment will accompany these fine scholars throughout their lives.

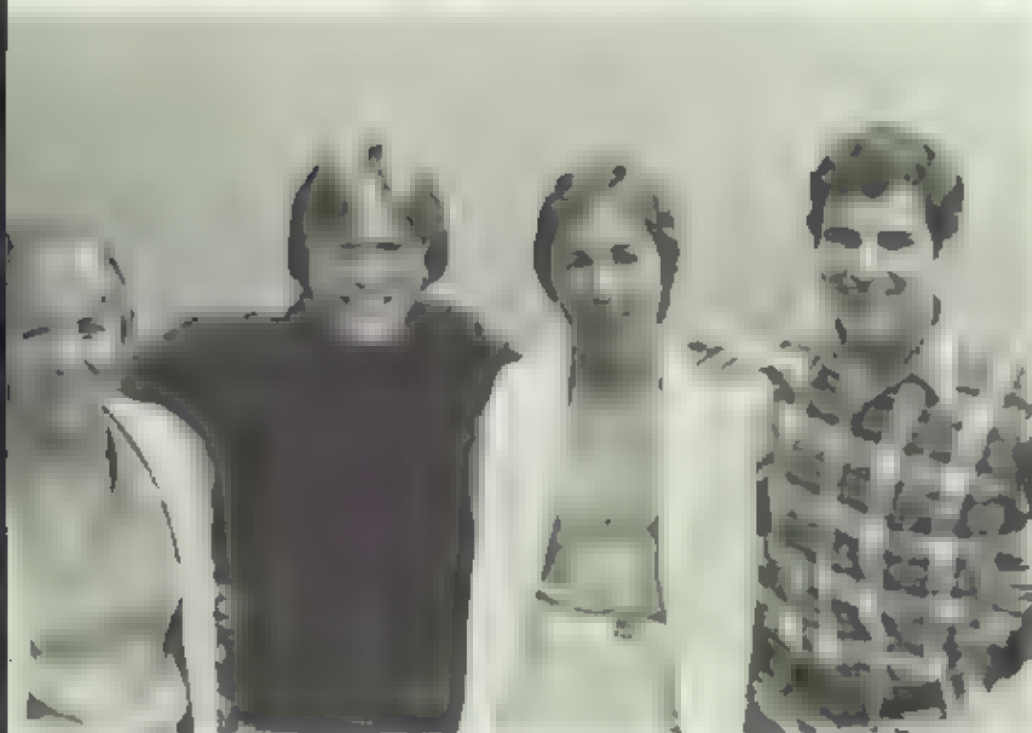

Spanish Culture Enthusiasts

Spanish Honors Society was a club consisting of students enrolled in Spanish 7-8 and 9-10. With the organization and leadership of Co-Presidents, Bob Gordon and John Molina, and Sponsor, Phil Anderson, the club planned such activities as a trip to Mexico and a booth at Fiesta Day. The club was a fine way for these students to enrich their knowledge of the Spanish culture.

AFS Gave Students a Chance to Learn

The AFS let students go to a foreign country for one more year of study after graduation. They also found suitable homes for students who came here from other countries.

The AFS let the students who were willing to participate in the program a chance to experience and learn more about foreign culture.

British Lit. Club Had A Great Year

The British Literature Club, sponsored by Mr. Kuntz, was very active this past year. Because 1982 was named Shakespeare year, there were many special exhibits that they were able to attend.

The club saw many Shakespearean plays, including a trip to California State University Long Beach to see 12th Night. They also went to the Huntington Library to study 14th century manuscripts, and the club was lucky enough to attend the famed Folger Exhibit.

The members didn't just study Shakespeare, they also studied other British authors, including literary pieces written by William Blake.

German Club Taught German Culture

The main purpose of the German Club was to let its members experience more of the German culture.

The club studied and discussed the foreign culture and participated in such activities as going to German restaurants and to a German smorgasboard. To finance these activities, the club sold Gummi Baren Tablette, a favorite candy of the German people.

The German club members are students who were interested in the German language and culture, and through the club, they learned more about both of these.

Cycling Club got in Shape

This year's Cycling Club was composed of eight members, each of them an experienced rider with many miles logged. One of the riders included was the sponsor, Mr. Dee Andrews, who said he really enjoyed taking the time in sponsoring the club.

The club members enjoyed many trips that they had taken this past year. One of their trips was from Ensenada, Mexico to Tecate, which was a 75 mile ride. The trip included numerous hours of rough terrain over mountains but all were rewarded with the breathtaking scenery that came to follow.

Girls Swam Their Way to Perfection

In the fall of 1981, the Wilson Girl's Swim Club was organized for the first time. The club consisted of girls that wanted to improve their swimming skills and wanted to achieve their ultimate goal, to be a member of the girls swim team.

With all the time preparing and improving their swimming skills, the club's efforts paid off. Club officers were President, Julie Kusske; Vice President, Robin Kundis, and Secretary, Kandice Newkirk; all of these girls gave their best to make girl's swim the best ever.

Spirit among them all

For 21 years the Girls Music Club has been active in the Instrumental Music Department. They had various fund raising events during the year, ushered at concerts, and also promoted spirit and enthusiasm towards the instrumental department

Rally Club: A good cause

The Rally Club had a busy year going to all the games and promoting their school spirit. Money made from fund raisers went to the NAACP and other organizations. Rally also raised $500 in a candy sale. First semester president was Debi McCulley and second semester president was Tamara Ferguson. This year Rally had a new sponsor Lucille Stevens

The collectors of Wilson

The Numismatic Society was better known as the coin club. The members were avid coin collectors, but they were also interested in old medals. The club originated this year with the help of the sponsor Gene Allen and Tom Snyder, who was the club's president

The strategy behind Wilson

Travelers' Aid Society was a role playing game. The object of the game was to wipe out your opponents and be the sole survivor on the board. This was the first year the club was on our campus. There were not many members but they hope to make it a popular club on campus. Christine Deffenbauh, the sponsor for the club, enjoyed the learning experience and she became friends with many of the members

Drama Club

This year, Drama Club was bigger than ever, thanks to many enthusiastic and talented students and Mr. Randy Bowden.

In the fall, Drama Club had a booth for homecoming. The crazy imaginations of the members thought up selling Roman wreaths and Caesar cookies with stab wounds oozing red frosting.

Their Spring project was the Drama Club production, "Up The Down Staircase". The club enabled students not taking a drama class to participate in the show. As usual, the show was a fantastic success.

Another annual Drama Club event is the Drama Awards Banquet. The banquet gives recognition to students for their acting and directing in the different shows put on throughout the year.

Pied Dansant

Pied Dansant is made up of the members of the dance department. Its main purpose was to raise money for costumes and sets for the dance concert, and to purchase awards for their banquet at the end of the year. The club had booths at Homecoming and Fiesta Day and had fundraisers in order to raise money.

Choral Club

Choral Club consists of all the members of the Vocal Department.

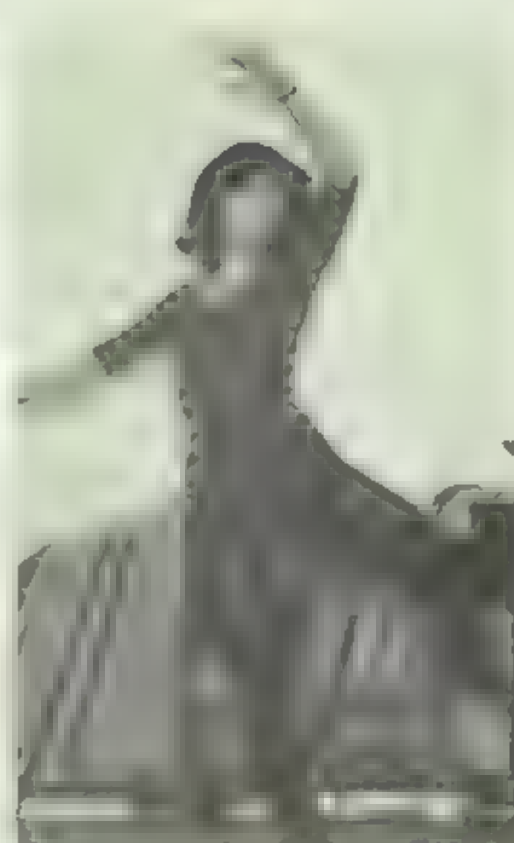

The main objective of this club was to raise money for various trips, concerts, and festivals the Vocal Department participated in.

Raza Unida Showed Enthusiasm

"I'm really glad I was able to participate in Raza Unida. It was educating and I learned a lot about Mexican American heritage," commented Ray San Miguel, an active member of Raza Unida. "I also learned more about the present day life of Mexican Americans."

Raza Unida has participated greatly this year in various activities including selling delicious burritos and tostadas at homecoming, sponsoring dances and celebrating Cinco de Mayo by going over the Mexican American heritage.

The main purpose of Raza Unida was to try and keep students away from gang related violence and to make the school have a friendly attitude. With Lupe Flores as President, Christy Cuvas as Vice President, Diego Gastelum as Treasurer and Rosa e Mix and Conna Silva as Secretaries, Raza Unida certainly carried on the tradition of uniting the Mexican American students at Wilson.

Immin Kept Wilson Going

At most any school event, one would most likely find a member of Immin doing their part supporting and being involved with Wilson.

Immin, under the coordination of sponsor Dr. Gatley, successfully completed their second year as a club here at Wilson.

Immin is a club designed to promote school spirit and provide service to the community. During the year, members of Immin supported school athletics, had a booth at Homecoming and volunteered some time at the Long Beach Veteran's Administration Hospital.

As years pass, hopefully Immin will grow and more students will join in helping promote school spirit while also being an aide to the community.

Asian Club Shared Foreign Interests

Sponsored by Mr. Hill, the Asian Club kept a strong attitude towards learning about different cultures, societies, making closer relationships between Asian students and getting involved in Wilson activities. One of the biggest and most delicious contributions was selling mouth watering egg rolls at Homecoming. They also went as a club to the movies, had picnics, went ice skating and had several parties.

Next year the club hopes to become bigger and stronger and carry on with their great reputation.

Fishing Club was “Reely Hooked”

About every other weekend during the year the fishing club met at a designated spot to sit patiently for hours and wait for that big one to bite. Sponsored by Rich DeCoudres, the club went to places such as Catalina, the Long Beach jetty and sometimes someone would splurge and take a few members out on their boat. After a long day of fishing, the members couldn't wait to get back to school so they could tell their big fishing story.

Chess/Backgammon Kept their Cool

Providing a time and a place to sharpen chess and backgammon skills was the main objective of the chess and backgammon club. This year the club, sponsored by Mr. Robert Lerch, had two big tournaments. At the end of the tournament the champions received engraved trophies. Club officers were: President, Kevin Knopf; Vice President, Kristen Ahlgren; and Secretary, Anthony Powell, all of which did an excellent job.

New Faces for Spring Semester

The spring semester at Wilson brought to the faculty some new faces. Mrs. Drummond was the new U.S. History and Criminal Law teacher. Mrs. Forbes was a new Grammar and Composition teacher.

Also new to the faculty were the new cafeteria manager Nancy Fitzgerald and Gail Leaders a staff assistant. Ronald Mahan was the new stage technician. Rhonda Johnson who worked in the afternoon, and Michael Love were new custodians.

CIF Water Polo Champions

The Wilson faculty, staff, student council, student body, and campus clubs congratulate our CIF 4A Water Polo Champions. For dedicating many hours of his personal time, we commend Mr. Rick Jones. His winning attitude and belief in the team contributed to his team's victory. Our outstanding Varsity Players were Doug Bolcek, Randy Reed, Eric Elder, Steve Jones, Steve Brounley, Scott Gundersen, Dan Kennedy, Jon Seretan, John Schuman, Jimmers Peegrino, Randy McCormick, Ryan Balance, and Tony Martinho.

UNDERCLASSES

Junior Class Got the Job Done

Junior Class Council this year was sponsored by Mr. Pete Owen. The council knew at the beginning of the year that their main project was to organize the senior prom. That is just what they did! Many members of the council went out looking at various rooms and listening to bands to find the best that they possibly could to make the prom the best. Of course it was a success, due to the many hours of hard work, creativity, and organization. The council also had many fund raisers to help support the prom and other activities of the junior class. Altogether they had an outstanding year and are looking forward to their senior year.

Super Sophs Show Spunky Spirit

The class of '84 showed a lot of enthusiasm their first year at Wilson. The election results for the fall sophomore officers were barely posted and bam! They had their very first council meeting with about fifty sophomores in attendance. They worked together and prepared a booth for homecoming which was very successful. The sophomores' main objective this year was to establish a sturdy account. They met this goal by putting their heads together and creating many different fund raisers. Sponsored by Dr. Chester Harbut, they were a vivacious and well organized group. Overall the year was a big success and hopefully they will show their continued support and spirit throughout their junior and senior years.

INSTRUCTORS

Administration Looks Forward to Every Year

The Wilson administration dealt all year with discipline, special events, student problems and many other daily issues. They also sponsored clubs and helped coach sports.

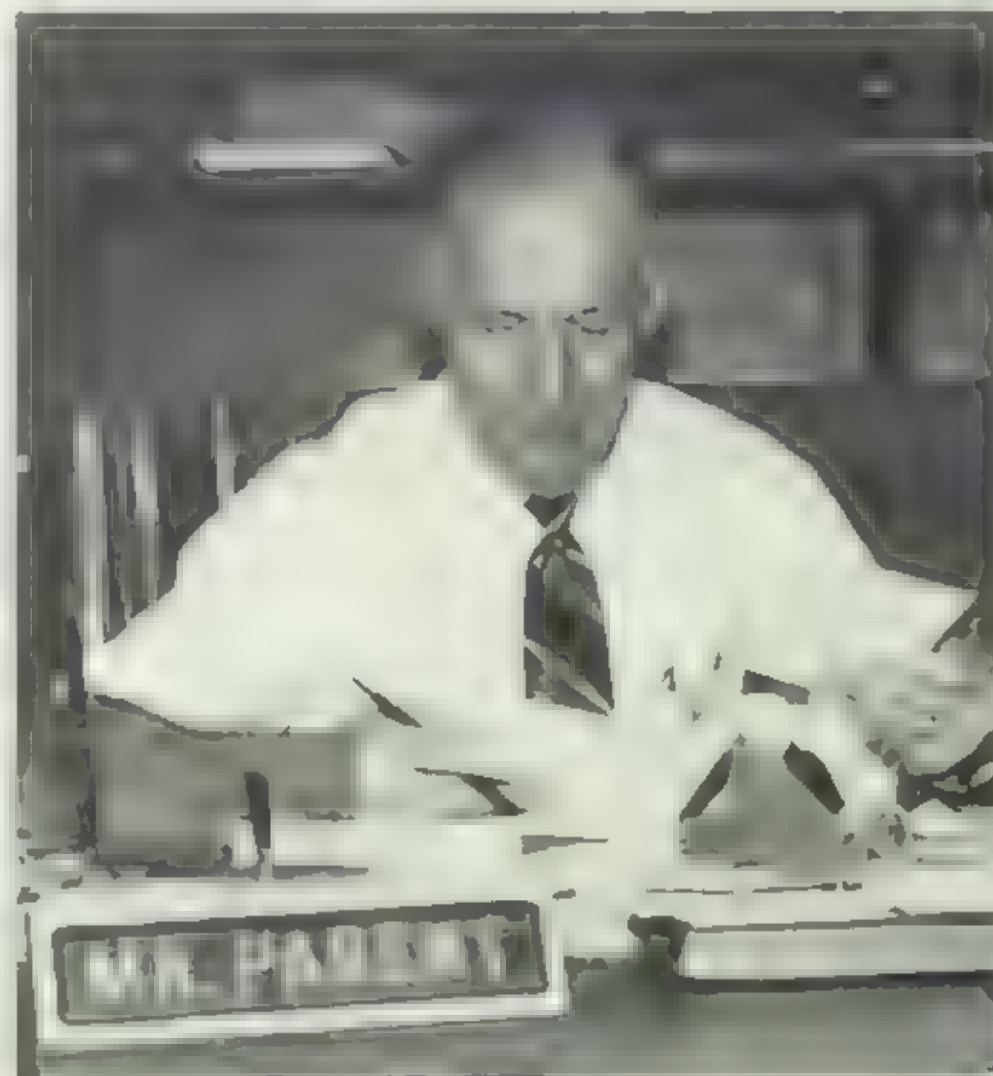

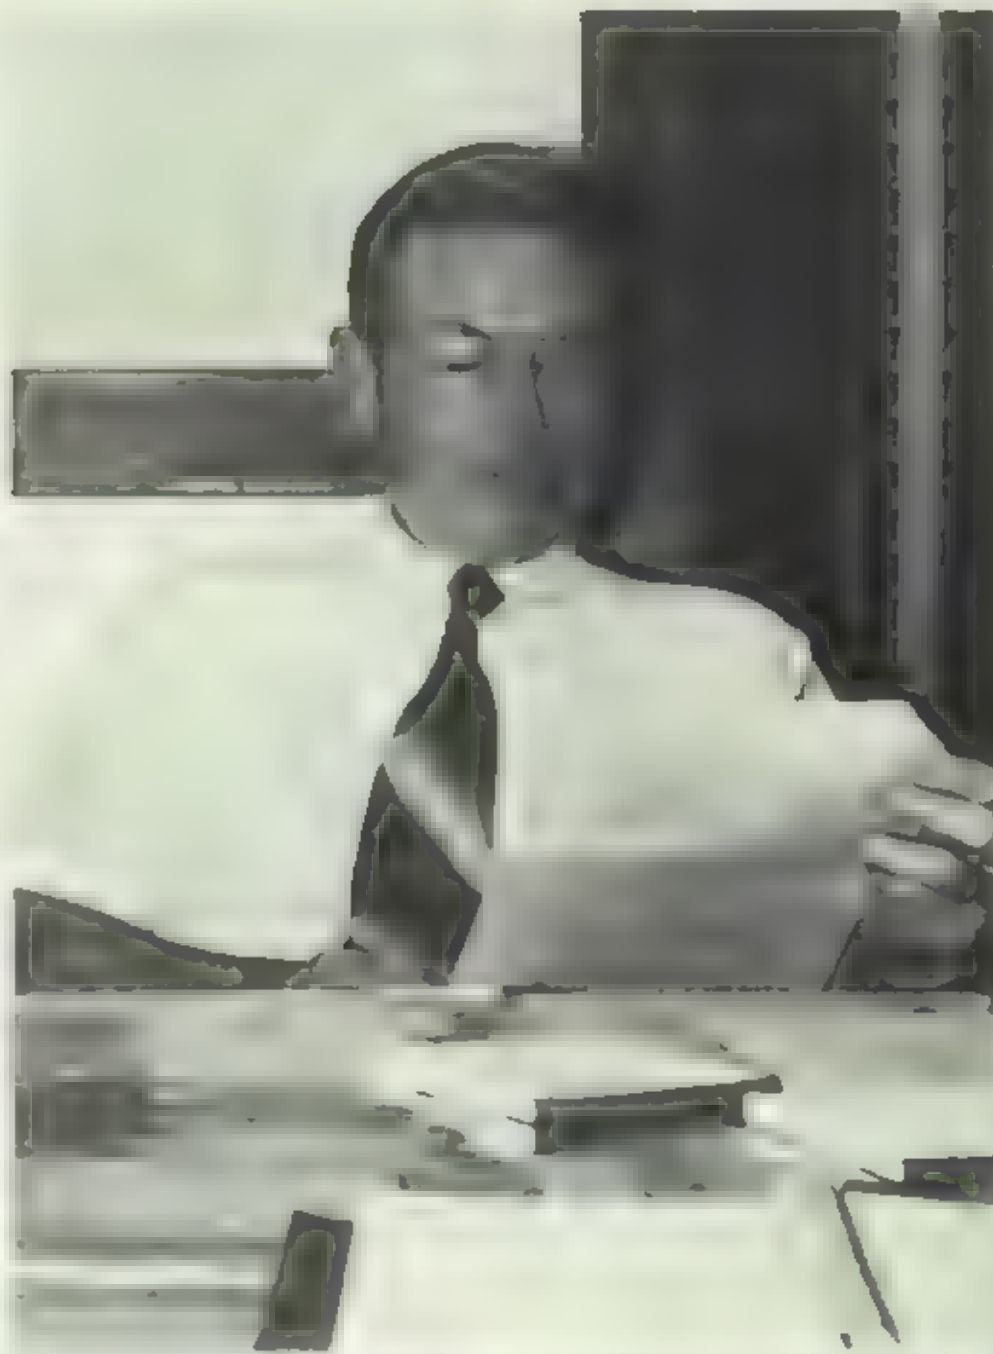

Our administrators had these words to say about their favorite time of the school year:

Mrs. Parker: "The spring semester is probably my favorite time of the year. There are a lot of things happening during that time. The first half of the school year has gone by and the preparation for senior graduation is an exciting time for myself and the seniors. There's also planning for the next school year, and a lot of the students are looking forward to some kind of vacation for the summer. The outdoor spirit of spring flowers makes it a special and beautiful time."

Mr. Evaland: "The first day of school. Why? After three months without young people around, I'm beginning to show and feel my age. Once I'm surrounded by lively, alert, fun-loving students, the transformation for me is instantaneous and complete. I feel 20 years younger. What a great rejuvenation!"

Mr. Ware: "My favorite time at Wilson is EVERY DAY."

Mr. Whitmore: "High spirit, music of the marching band, new faces, renewed challenges, and student and staff enthusiasm make the opening months of school my favorite time of the year. All of these aspects are in abundance at Wilson — it's a pleasure to come back to this environment after the summer break."

2

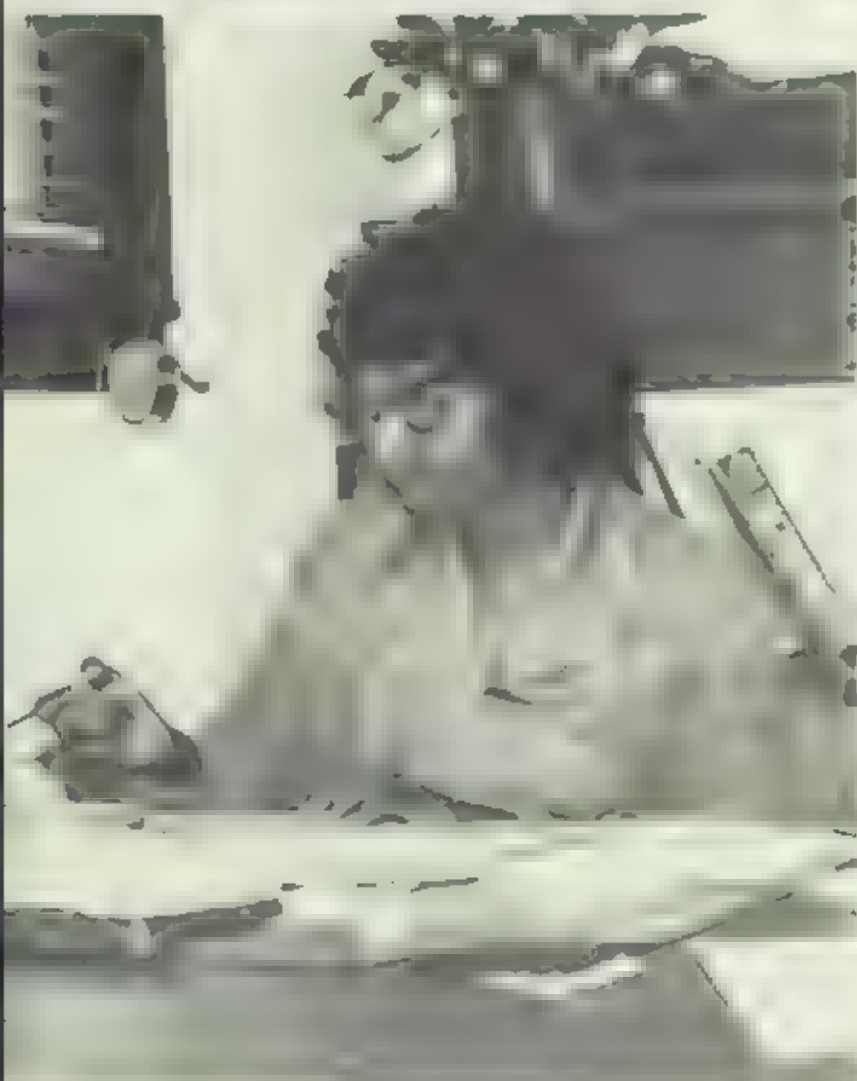

Principal's Message

It is my sincere hope that this year at Wilson has been a period of growth toward worthy goals for each and every one of you. This, of course, would necessarily mean a concurrent development in healthy attitudes and common sense, a belief in oneself, a commitment to hard work, and probably a maturing sense of humor. If you have "grown" — and many of you have — and you continue to strive for and take pride in achieving worthy goals, your future will see many victories.

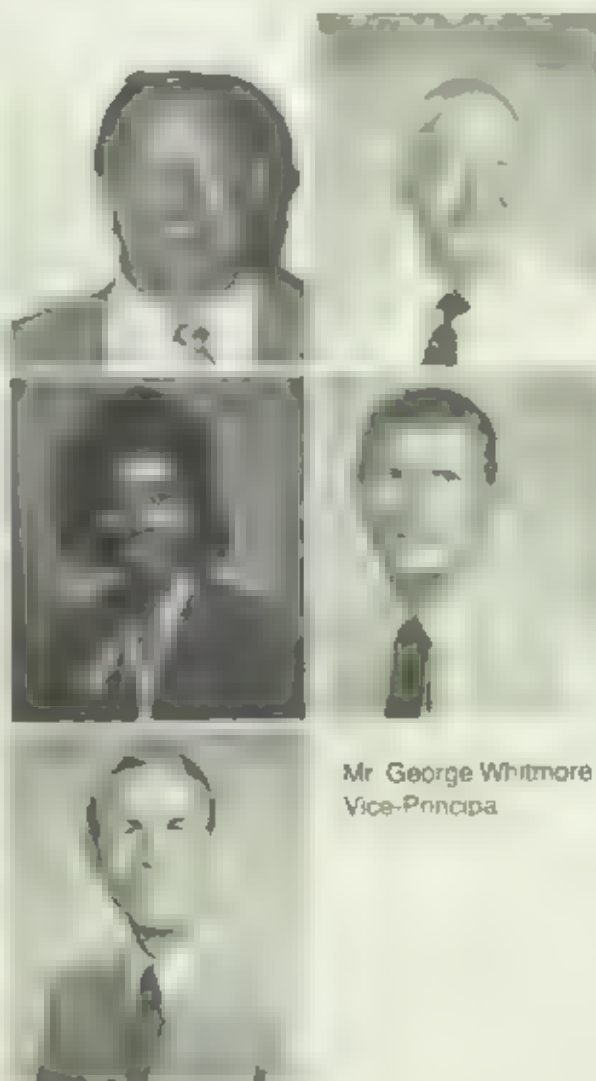

Goal setting and persevering to attain are the prerequisites for success, happiness, and self-fulfillment. If I had my way, all of you would understand and accept this.

Ed Eveland

- 1 Vice-Principal Mr. George Whitmore looks over the latest news bulletin.
- 2 Our principal, Mr. Ed Eveland, was interested in academics and other extra curricular activities during the school year.
- 3 Mr. Robert Ware has made a lot of phone calls as an Assistant Principal at Wilson.
- 4 Assistant Principal Mr. Richard Parent signs a birthday card for head counselor Mr. Paul Honey.
- 5 Since coming over to Wilson two years ago, Assistant Principal Mrs. Mildred Parker has given support to several clubs by becoming a sponsor.

Counselors Guide With Pride

Wilson was lucky to have a dedicated and hard working group of counselors during the 1981-82 school year. Headed by Mr. Paul Honey, this team of professionals offered assistance in career guidance, job placement, and class selection. Their pride and spirit were reflected, not only in their duties, but also in their Wilson spirit. Mr. Paul Honey said, "Wilson students are the greatest to work with." Mr. Joe Riddick expressed that he loved the one-to-one contact with Wilson students. Mrs. Adrienne Holzman stated, "I love working as a counselor. I thoroughly enjoy working with kids." Mrs. Marcine Landon commented, "I really enjoy working with teenagers, and I find my work at Wilson fulfilling and rewarding." "I really enjoy the Wilson students, they are a great group of kids, well-matured and well-disciplined," added Mr. Tom Bagshaw. Mrs. Jean Lowentrout joined in, "It is an honor and a privilege to work here at Wilson, I meet a lot of students that will go a long way in life." Mr. Don Menke remarked, "I hope that my students have been half as inspired by me as I have been by them."

Wilson students gained much by these talented professionals in our counseling staff.

ROP & Vocational Shined Through In '82

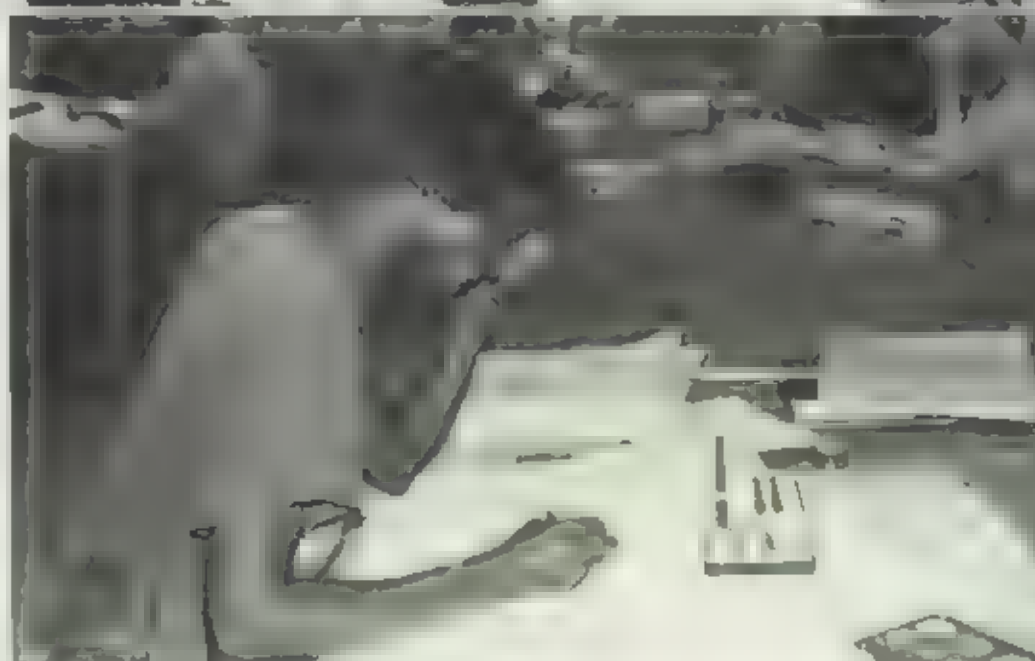

The year of 1981-1982 brought many new and challenging job opportunities to Wilson students. Food service, graphic design, child care, metals and auto shop were just a few areas in which experience was gained.

With the help of our six vocational and countless number of ROP courses being offered, students got involved with training in a career that interested them the most.

Home Ec Toiled and Boiled

Pumpkin cookies, lemon pies, eggs-in-a-blanket, french toast, chocolate pies, peanut butter cookies, could you identify these aromatic aromas permeating through the hall in the 100 building? Did you ever see a needle point pillow, a hand-made knitted sweater or creative ideas for interior designs? The Home Economics Department was behind all of these creations. With such classes as Interior Design, Creative Living, Foods and Nutrition, Clothing Selection and Effective Living, students had a wide selection of courses to choose from and learn from.

1. Putting the final touches on her project is Lon Barnes. Aiana White demonstrates her graphic designing skills at Lakewood High.
2. Art Andrew, Mr. Emerson Betz and Bart Nadeau decide that perfection is the answer.
3. Getting the point across in needlepoint is Venessa Robinson.
4. Lori Fischer makes sure that Scott Grunisen's typing on the computer graphic typesetter is correct.

Art Was Ambitious Business Was Booming

Under the direction of Mr. Swintek and a jovial Mr. Eilerman, busy art students entered many contests this year. From the first day of school, preparations were made for the Annual Wilson Art Show. As craft classes were manufacturing various ceramics, advertising art classes were thinking of new slogans for an anti-smoking campaign. The senior artists gathered their best works to enter in competition for Long Beach Art Association Scholarships, while drawing and painting students etched trees in the quad.

Business Education gave students a chance to learn practical skills for the business world. Joining the department this year was Mr. Wynne. Students limbered up their fingers for one of the many typing classes offered, and future lawyers received a great deal of training in business law classes. There were also classes in shorthand and office practice for students who might one day be running an office.

Custodian's Mascot Unveiled

A mascot that is not a bear? Who is it? What is it? The custodians have a mascot all their own. "Kat" has been here at Wilson for more than fifteen years. She sleeps in the boiler room and in the early mornings she comes out to play. When our library was located in what is now the Guidance Center, Kat prowled around the book stacks. Although Kat was issued a library card, she always left it in her locker which was why Wilson students always saw her cat-napping.

We must also commend the custodians for the great job they did keeping our campus clean from both student and seagull droppings.

“Kat” is No Normal Cat

Oh sure, she purrs and goes meow, and even plays with yarn, but what cat do you know who has her own library card and pass? What cat roamed the one hundred building plus the counselors offices? Those were just a few things that Kat has done at Wilson. She was adopted more than fifteen years ago by our custodians. Kat just wandered on campus, and got to know the students, and worked her way into the flow of things. John Gouger, a custodian who retired two years ago, cared for and loved Kat dearly. When John left, Kat aged considerably and kept a low profile. Kat has been spotted in the early morning hours before school. Kat put the will in Wilsonia

General P.E. is all but General

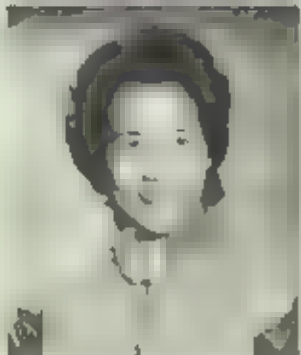

With Holiday spa, and Jack LaLanne health spas all over town, exercising has become expensive. At Wilson, exercising was not only free but fun. This exciting program was called Physical Education. Wilson offered aerobics, tennis, basketball, baseball, volleyball, flag football, and to remove those flabby thighs, weight training.

The program was successfully directed by ten qualified and talented instructors. General Physical Education was all but general.

Learned to Live

A diverse curriculum encompassing anthropology, humanities, psychology, history and APB was available to Wilson students to extend their knowledge of man. Seniors witnessed actual armed robbery and assault court cases while juniors learned about the rise of our nation in U S History

Teaching The Basics

Health education, drivers education, and career guidance were some of the required classes for the incoming sophomores. Though these courses might not have been as exciting for the sophomores, they appreciated what they learned, and they were able to use their knowledge in every day life

Teachers Enhance Understanding

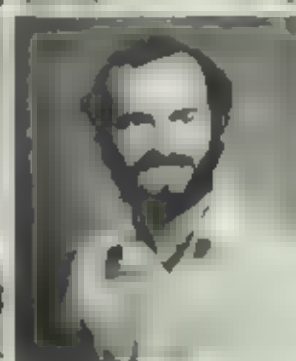

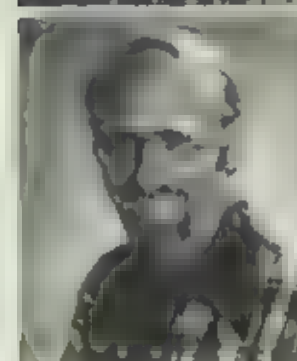

When walking through the 300 building, one was often hit with the pungent smell of formaldehyde. Many students explored the internal workings of frogs, worms, and fish in biology, while students oxidized a splinter of wood in chemistry. Realizing that learning was taking place, students really did not mind the pungent odors and ignored them as best they could. Although a few labs involved a repulsive array of odors, others in physics were simulating waves with slinkies and observing their principles in ripple tanks. After observing many other basic principles in the lab, students were often asked to use their mathematical background in making a graph of the raw data.

The Wilson Math Department has always provided a solid background for its students. This year was no exception. Whether students were struggling or not, help was always on the way. These lecturing instructors taught to use square roots, find cosines, or just plain dividing and multiplying. From general math to the complex calculus, we have it all. The sciences and the humanities require a good background in math which can be accredited to our fine math department, once again giving the students the needed skills.

Staff Keeps Steady Pace

"May I see your pass please?" "Do you have a note for your absence?" "That's one dollar and fifty cents for a student ticket." These are remarks that students heard all during the year from Wilson's Staff Assistants

Dollie McGrane (staff assistant) has been working with children for over ten years and she loved it. Last year staff assistant Ken Hougey was known for getting the job done. Mrs. Whelton, in the Guidance Center, wouldn't trade places with anyone. She is loved by students and faculty alike, and was always there when needed. Come rain and come shine, we could count on Mrs. Rhyne, the principal's secretary

Mathletes Finish First

In this year's competition the Math Team, under supervision of sponsor Roy Anderson, once again finished with outstanding achievements. They were the winner of the Occidental Math Contest and earned first place in all 7 team events in the All-City Math Contest. On the National Math Test they received a Certificate of Merit and in the California Math competition were first in the L.A. County league. In the Computer Science League they placed second in the state. Drew Lindberg and Steve Morrow both earned $50 in Pomona's Math Contest. This year as well as in past years Wilson has been very fortunate to have such great "mathletes."
